

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
Provost's Advisory Committee on Faculty Work-Life

Purpose of Initiative

To examine the tenured and tenure-track faculty work life and working climate, with a special emphasis on the experiences of women faculty.

To develop appropriate initiatives to address significant concerns.

Advisory Committee to the Provost

The committee will be charged to:

1. Give counsel to the Provost on the design and conduct analysis and interpretation of a study of the work lives of tenured and tenure-track faculty at Cornell, with a special emphasis on women faculty.
2. Give advice on the dissemination of the outcomes of the study.
3. Make recommendations about appropriate responses to the outcomes of the study.

Organization of the Committee

The Provost will chair the committee. She may appoint, at her discretion, consultants on methodology to work with the Advisory Committee and the Office of Institutional Planning.

Membership

Dorothy Ainsworth
Cynthia Ruth Farina
Herbert Wilson Gottfried
Michael Jones-Correa
Teresa Eileen Jordan
Ronald Kline
Biddy Martin, Chair
Amy Villarejo
Elaine Wethington

Carolyn Ainslie, ex officio
Francille Firebaugh, ex officio

November 2004